TESTIMONIALS

"I loved your book! Relational shifts is a great book! Everyone can learn from it- Thanks for your honesty and advice Julie! I really could relate to so many things you were saying and it really helped me along in my decision process and to not feel as guilty about it and the changes I felt towards my husband. Thanks for your help!"

"Wow! How awesome and inspiring that [speaking] engagement must have been for both of you! I can only hope that at some point in the future my soon-to-be ex and I will get to a point even close to where the two of you are now. How blessed I am to have happened upon your website."

-Erika

"Having just gone through divorce, I can tell you you're really providing a much needed service. It's very easy to feel you're alone in this situation, so the more honest work like yours out there the better. Keep fighting the good fight!"

-Dave

"I am half way through your book. I commend you for your courage and honesty in writing it. I went through so many of the exact same choices navigating my life during the years I was married, your words and reflections filled me."

-Dave S.

"I felt inspired and warmly embraced by your stories. My husband and I are trying to keep our marriage together but I have felt emotionally alone throughout its 17-year duration. I am approaching your site for guidance and the peace I am craving so deeply."

-Wendi R.

"I found your movie, moving and chock full of symbology. I thought the writing was especially excellent, the actors talented and the storyline fascinating. I understood every little nuance and thought. I really enjoyed your movie and am looking forward to Part Two."

-Lucinda S.

"Wow, mesmerizing. Could not stop looking at it. What a story. These are some brave, wonderful people who share their story. Brutally honest. Great and a MUST SEE."

-Arbil

"Wow, great work and poignant story. Thanks for sharing and I look forward to seeing the demo-pilot for your show, where can i get it?"

-Moviemaker

"Notable is the fact that you are leading by example--as a family. You're coming together, recounting struggles and hardships you've collectively and individually experienced, but equally demonstrating to others that there is a positive alternative and "tools" to use when shifts, like divorce, happen."

-elleprie

"As a therapist working with families that go through such challenging changes like this it is a refreshing view. Also looks like some great resources for other families to be inspired are in the process of being created. Nicely done!"

-goofygal

"You are so brave and generous to share such personal details of your lives with the public. You are an inspiration not only to other families going through divorce, but to anyone in any relationship. Thank you."

-ReelNomad

"Thank you. Thank you for your the real and raw, for your openness, for your vulnerability. Sharing such a journey, empowering others to honor their process in life, wherever it takes them. We need more of this type of honest & healthy dialogue. Thank you for sharing this passion and your life experience."

Great video...i can totally relate and am glad to say that I have lived happily as a child of divorced parents. It is crucial for the kids to be involved in keeping the lines of divorce open and peaceful.

I think people need an example of this type of parenting to show them that it does work..... kudos to you!

"what a great perspective on a situation that is occurring so frequently these days. it's nice to see a positive approach to an alternative style family."

-sckat

This "family" should be an example to all families going through and living with divorce. They chose to love and teach their daughter what love is rather than succumb to the hatred and fighting that seems to usually follow divorce. I applaud them and their continuing efforts.

"Very inspiring and I love the concept of breeding love rather than hate! beautiful!"

-jessilee

"You and Lee are angels on earth! And talented too! Thanks for the info and, as I said before, help you in any way I can. Blessings to you!"
